

SPIERS & POND'S HOLBORN VIADUCT HOTEL.

LONDON. July 31. 1889

M. le Directeur

M. le Comte de Roscoff.

Dear Sir,

I leave London
tonight at 9.45.
for St Malo, and shall come straight
on to Roscoff by train
from Morlaix.
We sail from Southampton at 12.0'clock

midnight but as I do not know where we shall reach St. Malo, or how the trains
run thence to Morlaix
I cannot give you
my hour of arrival
exactly.

Professor Geddes said
you were expecting me on August 1st.

It will probably be the day following.

I am dear Sir,

Yours sincerely

W. E. Fothergill
