Dear Sir

I am sorry I am so late in sending the reply to my inquiries that I promised, which you will see excuses me from having demanded payment twice over

Faithfully yours

Dear Sir

I have received, with thanks, your intimation from the Post Office that the postal order had lapsed, as I had ascertained on this side. I cannot of course give any reason why it never reached us, with reference to your resignation I suppose the Secretary acknowledged it in due course. There is no question of its being communicated to the Society: it simply comes into effect. If it was made under a misunderstanding I am sure the Council would desire to annul it

Faithfully yours

Dear Sir

I have the honour to enclose a resolution passed by the Council of the London Mathematical Society, and notified to me by the Secretary.

You will permit me to say that if you decide to take advantage of it, your action will be a source of great Satisfaction to myself personally

Faithfully yours

Harmor
